REVOLUTIONIZING INTERNAL AUDIT!

REVOLUTIONIZING INTERNAL AUDIT!

Get in the spirit of, “Revolutionizing Internal Audit,” during The IIA’s 2012 International Conference in Boston, Massachusetts, USA. Bringing together an anticipated 3,000 delegates for educational sessions and networking opportunities, the 2012 Conference’s core focus will inspire and educate you while cultivating the future of the profession.

Internal audit professionals from more than 100 countries will assemble in this New England town of culture and history to connect over key training and resources. A myriad of benefits are accessible to conference attendees including:

- Renowned keynote speakers from Harvard Business School and other prestigious organizations from around the world.
- Numerous concurrent sessions on today's pressing issues, industry best practices, and unique challenges to help you add value to your organization. Topics that will be discussed include: audit management, financial services, corporate social responsibility, leadership, and information technology.
- The convenient location of the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center, which is just 2 miles away from Boston's Logan International Airport and within walking distance of designated conference hotels.
- A stunning, state-of-the-art convention hall brimming with the latest tools, techniques, products, and services.
- A variety of networking opportunities including enlightening breakout sessions featuring recognized practitioners and subject matter experts.
- Memorable receptions featuring Bostonian hospitality and fare.

The 2012 International Conference is not all about business though. Boston hosts more than 12 million visitors annually from across the country and around the globe. This vibrant, thriving city is renowned for its cultural facilities, world-class educational institutions, champion sports franchises, as well as its place at the very forefront of American history. You and your conference guests will experience and enjoy a world of fabulous adventures including whale-watching in the famed Boston Harbor; touring landmarks such as Freedom Trail that leads you to 16 nationally significant historic sites; sinking your toes in the sand at picturesque New England beaches; and seeing it all by foot, boat, bike, bus, or by the world famous Boston Duck Tours.
